Dear Helen,

I'm glad that school is finally over and that we were lucky enough to graduate; but on the other side I feel sad because I'm going to miss a lot of very good friends. And you were one of the very fine ones. During the short period of time that I got to know you, I found out that you're one of the few girls that can understand and help others. I also hope that you won't ever forget all the fun that we had in and out of school, especially at the senior prom. To such a nice young lady I wish the best of luck and success in life.

Love
Adelino Lampos
"Goat"

Helen,
I wish the best
of you & the sweetest
of all the girls to have the pleasure of knowing.
Love, Albert

I Helen, success
and hope, happiness follows
you in whatever you do in life. You are a great friend to have and I hope we always remain friends. We had some good and bad times, but we can laugh now. I'll always remember speed reading. We and the fun we had there. I told you I'm glad for friends this year and I will always be in my mind. Hey, Rocky, just a well, this is not what a night!
stepping stone in our good-bye, see you (I better)

Love,
Frank

HALLS OF IVY

VOLUME 22 1977

FOREWARD

Time _____ticking away_____sped four years by us without our contemplation of its sudden end. These past four years have been for many, a time of growing up _____living the carefree, innocent days of our youth, soon to be past. It has been a time of joy and of tears; a time of fantasies and realizations, which will soon be "reflections of the way life used to be." For most, a final good-bye will be said to these "hallowed halls" and to friendships thought everlasting.

So, as a final tribute to these years, memories, and inspirations we, the "Fervent Class of '77," present the twenty-second volume of the Halls of Ivy, hoping to keep them ever alight.

DEDICATION

James J. Sattur, Sr.

Some people are born to instruct, and others to be instructed; to care and be cared for; to help and to be helped; to love and to be loved.

This man is the instructor; the helper; the one who cares for persons; and the one who loves others.

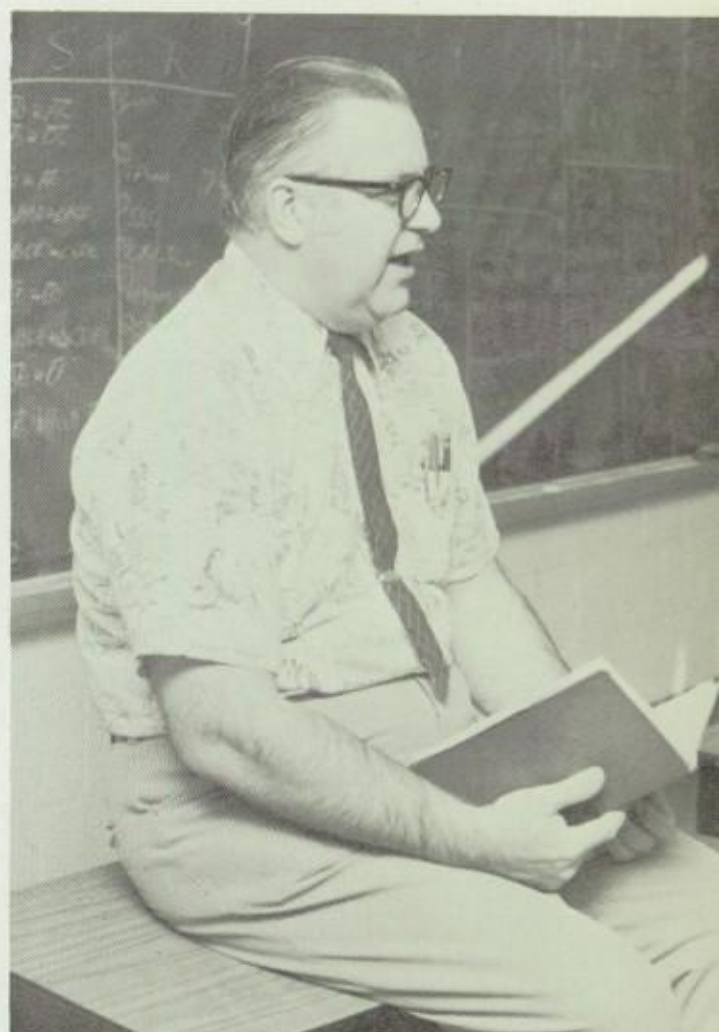

All who have known this man throughout his many years as an involved faculty member and friend will concur. His integrity has been a mainstay and his devotion an inspiration.

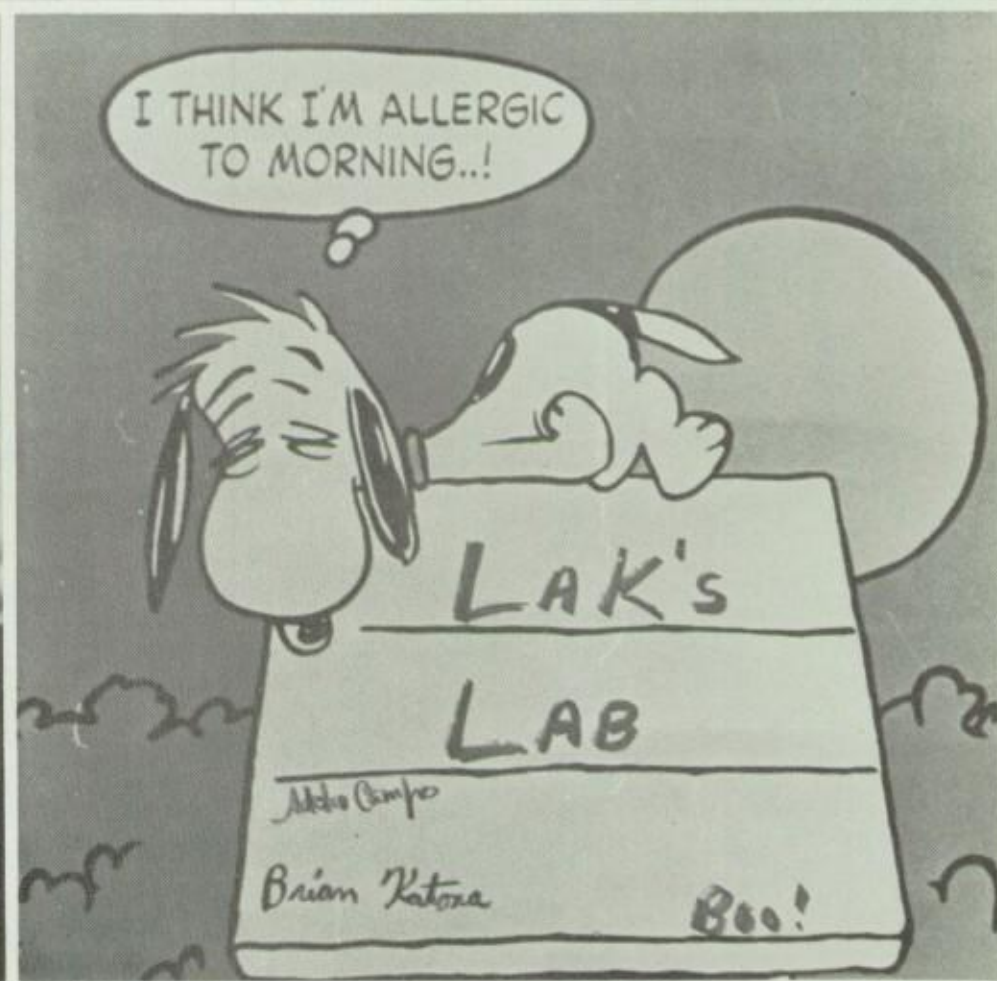

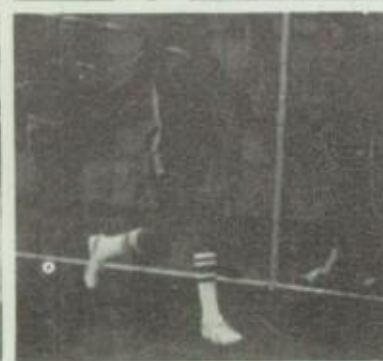

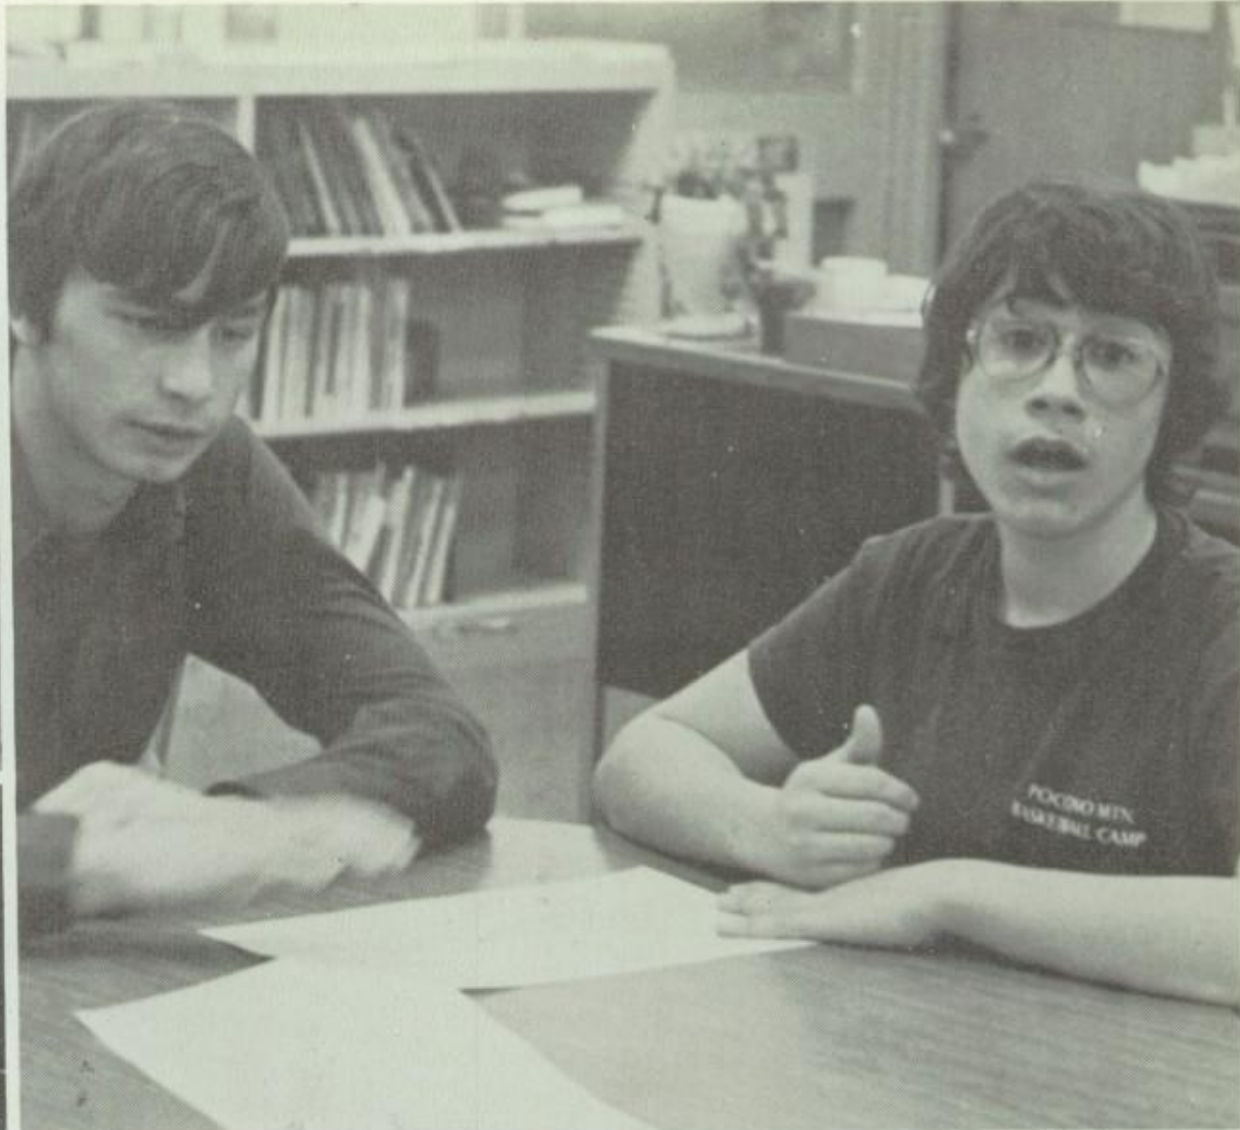

As the faculty advisor of the Halls of Ivy and the business advisor of the Periscope staffs, he has given his time and effort unselfishly.

As a teacher, there has always been extra time for the student who has sought additional educational assistance.

Finally, and most importantly he has been a dear friend and mentor to many of us and the memory of his hand guiding us during our moments of insecurity and those of happiness which we shared together shall remain with us for all time.

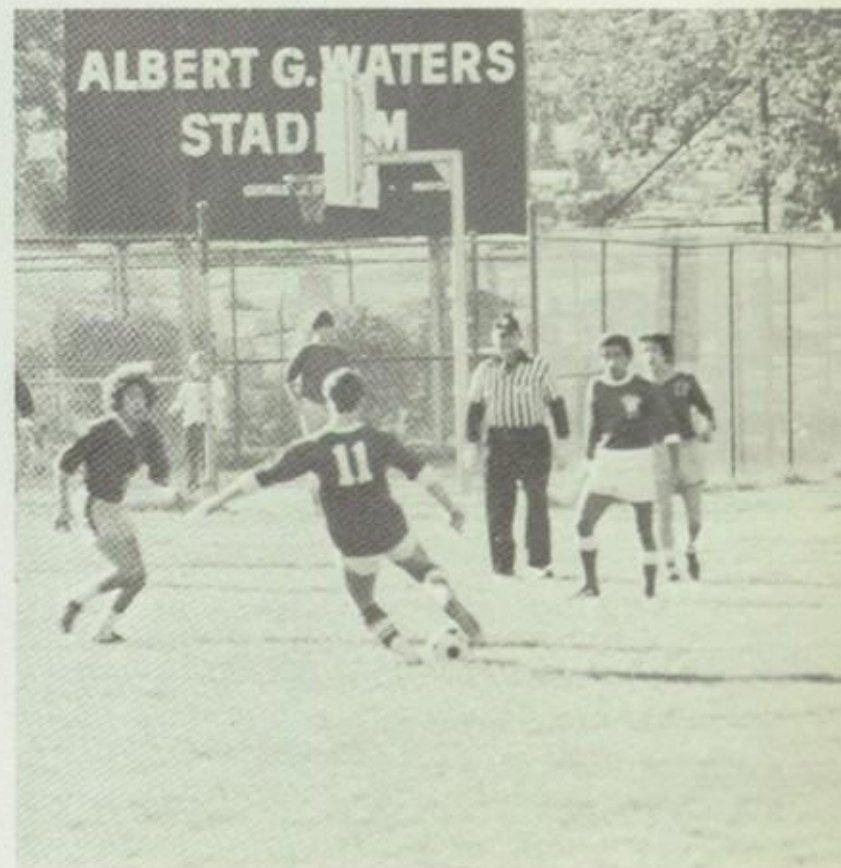

He has spent 25 years in this endeavor which shall reach its end this year and that is why we, the class of 1977 dedicate our volume of the Halls of Ivy with love, pride, and deep appreciation to Mr. James J. Sattur, Sr.

If a picture paints a thousand words;
 Then why can't I paint you?
 The words will never show
 The you I've come to know.
 If a face could launch a thousand ships;
 Then where am I to go?
 There's no one home, but you,
 You're all that's left me, too.
 And when my love for life is running dry,
 You come and pour yourself on me.
 If a man could be two places at one time,
 I'd be with you;
 Tomorrow and today, beside you all the way.
 If the world should stop revolving,
 Spinning slowly down to die;
 I'd spend the end with you.
 And when the world was through;
 Then one by one the stars would all go out;
 Then you and I would simply fly away.

THE SCHOOL

The school is a place for everyone,

Its a place of fun a place to learn,

A place to find yourself,

Know who you are.

Treat yourself with respect and others will treat you the same.

In school if you have a goal you have to try and climb this first hill and the one ahead.

To be what you want, you have to let people know who you are,

Because people make you what you are,

Now and in the future.

This is your life and where ever you go its there.

A boat in Port,
Chained to rotting piers,
Waiting for the time,
When he can be free,
A time to travel,
A time to see,
The meaning or reality to life.

If I could get lost,
this is where I'd be.
Just me and my guitar,
By a fence under a tree,
The music I make,
Means alot you see.
And thats all there is,
My guitar and me.

A fantasy world going deeper in to our minds,
Next year's reality coming faster than ever,
Dream's will either by made or broken,
Time passes too quickly.

PUERTO RICO

The day I left you, I left my heart behind me.
Since then, I haven't been able to find real happiness.
How could I have thought that I could live away from you?
You were my first love and you will be my last.
Oh, the happiness of roaming down the cobblestone streets, or spending afternoons by the sea, and of feeling your warm sun looking down on me.
You and I are one.
Puerto Rico, your name fills me with an aura of praying.
I left you to better myself, but don't grieve, my island as I grieve.
I will return to you.
I long to feel your warm sun to bathe in your crystal blue waters, to reach the top of your green mountains, to look down on an unreal world where everything is peaceful and beautiful, to feel you in the morning, and to be aware of you as one is aware of a lover.
You are my most precious treasure.
If others do not understand you, my island, I do.
There is no land like you in the world.
You are unique and so your people are unique. We are a peaceful people, Yes, peaceful because we have never been free and yet, we are loyal to those who blind us.
We are humble, but we are awakening to the truth.
Soon my land, you will take your place among the other countries of the world, everyone will recognize the greatness in you.
The world will come to know and to admire you. As I do.

When we first set foot on the premises of Perth Amboy High School, we found ourselves entering a new world; a world of uncertainties, and foreign in many respects. We experienced many insecurities and revealed our fear to no one. And this was four years ago. In the beginning, we felt our years here were going to be eternal, and now that the end has come and our membership as a student has terminated, we find ourselves looking backwards. We search for the memories that have made our days here pleasant ones in a desperate attempt to hold on to the past and avoid the upcoming future.

The last four years were ones of work and fun, of victory and defeat, of friendships and steadies, but most of all, of learning to operate in society and become one; unified in many respects, putting aside our petty differences when the honor of our school was at stake. These were four years of growing up.

There have been a number of people that have made our days here more memorable and enjoyable. To the administration, Mr. James Sattur, the faculty, and most of all, the Class of 1977, —THANK YOU— for making these memories ones that will be cherished always. For these memories will be our only link to the past.
